The Laptop Lab: Scheduled One-on-One or Small Group Computer Instruction Sessions
Computer Classes to Fit Your Needs & Schedule
The Library’s old Internet 1,2 and Easy Email sessions were limited to Internet searching and creating Email accounts and they were limited to one morning a week. Laptop Labs sessions fit your needs and schedule. Let us know what you’d like to learn and we’ll schedule a session to help you. These sessions are for individuals or small groups of up to four people. Individual or small group sessions make learning easier. If one session is not sufficient, more sessions can be scheduled.
For information or to schedule, contact adult services librarian, John Maruskin, at 859-744-5661, ext. 110, or email john.clarkbooks@gmail.com.

Sherlock Holmes Reading Group
Led by Tim Janes
The Sign of the Four
Tuesday, April 9, 6 PM
“The first importance not to allow your judgment to be biased by personal qualities. A client is to me a mere unit, - a factor in a problem,” says Sherlock Holmes to Dr. Watson about Mary Morstan, the woman who introduces them to the mystery of The Sign of the Four. The Sign of the Four (1890) is the second novel featuring Sherlock Holmes. The story is set in 1888. Its complex plot involves service in India, the Indian Rebellion of 1857, a stolen treasure, and a secret pact among four convicts (“the Four” of the title) and two corrupt prison guards. It also introduces Doctor Watson’s future wife, Mary Morstan. Tim Janes’ reading groups are enlightening and great fun. If you are a fan of Sherlock Holmes or new to the canon, you’ll enjoy this reading group.

Copies of Sign of the Four are available at the Library circulation desk. Editions are also available in the Library’s mystery section. Feel free to bring your favorite. Please register to attend.

Book Lunch
The Great Gatsby, by F. Scott Fitzgerald
Thursday, April 18, Noon
Book Lunch regular, Mary Ann Combs caught me at the copier one day and asked, “Why is The Great Gatsby supposed to be such a great book?” It’s been so long since I’ve read The Great Gatsby, I had to admit I couldn’t remember any of it except for its lyrical ending. But her question makes for a swell reading group focus. So, the Book Lunch posse will read The Great Gatsby for April and we’ll just see.” “So we beat on, boats against the current, borne back ceaselessly into the past.” Hmm.

Books available at the circulation desk. Please register to attend.

Ohinasama Origami Dolls

Local History Potluck Dinner Program
Andrew Jackson and the History of Indian Removal from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico, presented by Dr. John Bowes
Thursday, April 25, Dinner 6:15 PM, Program 7 PM
The history of the American Indian Removal is one that typically focuses on the actions of Andrew Jackson, the passage of the Indian Removal Act, and the tragedy faced by the Cherokee Nation. However, an accurate portrayal of this history must encompass far more than those usual suspects.

In this talk Professor Bowes will examine the larger and longer history of removal and discuss the ways in which a policy established in the early nineteenth century shaped the United States from the Great Lakes to the Gulf of Mexico and beyond from the late 1700s to the early 2000s.

If you would like to enjoy the potluck dinner, please bring a dish and arrive at 6:15 PM. If you prefer to just attend the program, please arrive at 7 PM. Either way, please register by calling 859-744-5661, visiting the library, or by using the Evanced online registration system at www.clarkbooks.org.
