Local History Potluck Dinner Program
The History of Hindman Settlement School, Presented by Isabel Ryerson
Thursday, April 23
Dinner 6:15 PM; Program 7 PM
Since 1902, when May Stone and Katherine Pettit started it, Knott County at the forks of Troublesome Creek has been home to Hindman Settlement School, the first rural settlement school in America. From that day it has continued to change lives for the better on a daily basis. Isabel Ryerson presents a fascinating look at this important part of Appalachian education.

Bring a dish and join your friends for this interesting program. It is free and open to the public. You may also come at 6:50 PM if you would prefer not to enjoy the potluck. Either way to ensure you have a seat, call for a reservation. Call 744-5661 or register by using Evanced on the Library’s web site, www.clarkbooks.org.
